Popular culture is an inevitable force of social change and democratic practice because it incorporates every aspect of our daily life . People are exposed to popular culture in their homes, their communities and schools , friendships are built around themes related to popular culture.

MAIN OBJECTIVE

Reducing the negative effects of popular culture on students by streamlining curricular activities and boosting school performance.

SPECIFIC OBJECTIVES

- To discover new ways of learning by increasing a learning environment in which students can acquire knowledge and experience at local and European level;
- To use knowledge gained from new technologies and information and communication technology;
- To give the target group a chance to take the lead , to be creative and use multimedia tools;
- To increase the number of graduates with the skills, knowledge and performance skills, based on transdisciplinary;
- To facilitate the exchange of best practices and innovative learning methods between partners;
- Introduction of new teaching methods using popular culture and the additional curriculum improvement, taking into account their requirements at European level;
- To improve the partners' language skills in a real context;
- To improve cooperation at European level.

Transnational meeting 1-3 December 2016

During the meeting, the project teams from Romania, Turkey, Spain and Sweden, have introduced the education systems from their countries of origin, chose the project logo and have discussed the project web page content. There were also established the periods for the student mobility and the next transnational meeting. There were established details of the activities to be implemented and there were distributed specific tasks to each partner.

"It was a very good cooperation, achieving all the objectives in the agenda. The foreign partners were pleased with our hospitality and impressed by the performance of our teachers and students in our school. A project logo was chosen by voting the most representative logo of the proposals made by each partner. During this time we are working hard on the project's website", confessed Tatiana Marandici, project coordinator .

The teachers that came to Romanai for the Exchange Program were: Gulsah Zuguranlar and Ersan Karatasli from Karabaglar Cumhuriyet Mesleki ve Teknik Anadolu, Turkey, Davinia Regal Romero și Paula Calvo Lopez from Fundacio Escolapies, Spain, Anna Maderner și Therese Westby from Nosnas Gymnasiet, Sweden.

"These projects are the best ambassadors of our country because we proved that we can change the Europeans' perception about us, Romanians!" also confessed Tatiana Mărăndici, the project coordinator.
